Volunteering as a Path to Board Service

YOUNG LEADERS COUNCIL VOLUNTEER[♥]NOW[®]

VolunteerNow[®] established the VolunteerNow Young Leaders Council to train the next generation of philanthropists and civic leaders, creating a pipeline of future nonprofit board members. Each year, a select group of 20-and-30-something young professionals will be nominated by their organizations to participate in this year-long program that emphasizes innovative thinking, collaboration and leadership.

The VolunteerNow Young Leaders Council Nonprofit Leadership Curriculum serves as the cornerstone of the program, and features faculty who are expert leaders in the nonprofit and business sectors. The curriculum is four Saturday morning sessions of engaging, interactive lectures supported by presentations from local nonprofits, and provides invaluable personal and professional development. The educational component is supplemented by social events and hands-on volunteer projects.

At the end of the year, participants will be awarded a certificate of completion and will have access to nonprofits seeking board members. Please see reverse for full program details.

Nonprofit Law Session with attorney Jonathan Blum

The YLC spent an afternoon at the North Texas Food Bank, where the group prepared more than 1,300 meals for the community!

About VolunteerNow

VolunteerNow serves as the hub of volunteerism in North Texas. Last year, VolunteerNow mobilized 135,000 volunteers who gave 1.5 million hours to 3,000 local nonprofits, driving a $37 million economic impact for the region. VOLY.org[®], powered by VolunteerNow[®], is the 24/7 connection between volunteers and local service opportunities. As a national thought leader in volunteerism and one of the largest volunteer centers in the country, VolunteerNow provides a wide range of programs and services that build capacity for nonprofits. www.volnow.org | www.volnow.org/ylc | ylc@volnow.org
